Paul J. Gulko

8136 Aldred Court Way
Your City, Antelope CA 95843
916-521-5179
pjgulko0@gmail.com

Planning on business opening and looking forwarded for Remote IT job career specialist positions and etc other jobs self employed Independent contractors freelance. Overall looking forward to gain Experience of years and training for Job offers in general.

EXPERIENCE:

I studied and learned training through bogdan courses programming web development software engineering Application programming python language sql data science Juypter and software development.

I also studied and have training
And education career wise of IT computer science in college Aiming to earn a AA degree or 3 years or 2 in half years for computer science field career industry and was tough the intro computer Science and finished that class career with a good grade passing Decent.

I also learned command prompt and flowcharts in the Java language. And etc more things and learned how to write HTML by algorithms symmetric and binary numbers How to run compilers.

EDUCATION

Independent High, roseville pathways— Degree

Earned a diploma and graduated from high school 4 years ago or 3 in a half years ago American River college, north highlands carmichael— AA Degree. I'm in college doing normal general ED classes and going For computer science for application software engineering or web development designing job positions career wise. I have training abilities experience and bought or purchased bogdan computer science SQL python data science structure courses and I completed them and completed a class college career for IT intro course.

SKILLS: Have the ability to possess or manage remotely a IT specialist job and Learn how in the career companies train people to make programs and algorithms I know HTML javascript Python SQL data science jupyter and can code API

What are my goals and what I am aiming for: I plan on getting into bible college for ministry AA degree and to become a pastor or leader and businessman in an IT industry job and have both jobs career and interests from graduate AA degree college.

LANGUAGES: English Russian Ukrainian